A Distant Mirror, The Calamitous 14th Century

by Barbara Tuchman (Part 1 will be discussed on November 11 and part 2 on December 2)

“The 14th century gives us back two contradictory images: a glittering time of crusades and castles, cathedrals and chivalry, and a dark time of ferocity and spiritual agony, a world plunged into a chaos of war, fear and the Plague. Barbara Tuchman anatomizes the century, revealing both the great rhythms of history and the grain and texture of domestic life as it was lived.”

Martha Talburt has been writing poetry most of her adult life. Acorn on my Shoulder is a whimsical collection of "takes" on her experiences. From the challenge of raising six kids in the sixties, to that of putting one foot in front of the other and making it to the summit of Mt.
