

STUDENTS KEEP CONNECTED WITH THE RIDGEFIELD LIBRARY

Gather all of your books and make a stack of the ones you haven't read yet.	Read the first 21 pages from one of your unread books.	Think of your favorite part from a book or movie and draw it as a comic strip	Write a crossover fanfiction: what would happen if two characters from different books met?	Take a walk outside and write down how many birds you see. What colors are they? How are their beaks shaped?
Do something kind for someone in your family.	Ask an adult or older sibling what their favorite book or movie was when they were your age.	Draw a very tiny picture here:	Learn a new dance.	Write a letter to your future self: 1 year from now? 3 years? 10 years??
Cook or bake something with an adult or sibling.	Write a thank you note or email.	Build a fort. Clean it up once you're all done.	Learn to say "please", "thank you", and "book" in a language you don't know.	Re-read a favorite book from when you were younger.
Make a collage with pictures from a magazine or cut-out drawings of your own.	Check out an e-book or magazine.	Invent new rules for a board or card game, or create your own.	Create an obstacle course and time yourself completing it. Write down your times.	Draw a picture or take a photo of your favorite reading spot, and send it to us.

Complete 10 of the activities and bring this page back to the Library for a reward when we reopen!

Stay in touch! Email us at children@ridgefieldlibrary.org, or find us on our website and social media.